The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, June 27. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 26.

Naples, May 29.

OUR Viceroy has viſited ſome of the maritime Places, and the Caſtles and Forts made on the Coaſt to hinder Deſcents, with which the Enemy endeavour to terrify the People ſince the raiſing of the Siege of Borcelona, tho' it be known their Fleet is hardly in a Condition to come into theſe Seas, the greateſt Part of their Land Forces being ſcarce ſufficient to garriſon Barcelona and the Places in Catalonia that have revolted. However the Viceroy has taken all the neceſſary Precautions to prevent the Conſequence of the preſent unlucky Circumſtances of Affairs, and fruſtrate the Deſigns ſome ſeditious Perſons might have. One diſguis'd in a Religious Habit has been ſiez'd; Several Papers were found about him that he was to have diſpers'd among the People.

Rome, June 1. The News of the raiſing the Siege of Barcelona is ſpread about here, with ſeveral falſe Particulars which the Imperialiſts have affectedly publiſh'd. Several great Wagers were laid about that Siege, but the Pope has forbid the paying any of them under very ſevere Penalties, or even the talking of this News in Places of publick Reſort.

Venice, June 5. Letters from the Breſſan adviſe, that Places are preparing in the City of Breſcia for receiving 3000 Loads of Hay that are to be laid up for ſubſiſting the Horſe of the Republick; and that the People of the Country and of that Town are reſolv'd to have all their Corn after Harveſt brought in thither, that it may not be expos'd to be taken away by the forreign Troops. In the mean time Gunners and Bombardiers are drawn together there, to be ſent to joyn General Delfino, who obſerving that the German Troops augment more and more in the Veroneze and the Vicentin, has reſolv'd to go to Vicenza with a great Body of Troops, and to order the Proveditore extraordinary Flangini to reſide in his Room at Verona. Signior Pietro Garzoni has caus'd ſome Officers to be put under Confinement at Breſcia, for not having their Companies full; and is gone to review the Troops in Bergamo and Crema, whence he is to return to Breſcia. The ſame Letters tell us, that the Count of Lodron having refus'd to pay 20000 Livres Contribution which the French had demanded of him, their Parties had begun to plunder and burn the Villages of that County, the Inhabitants of which had been forc'd to retire further up into the Mountains. A Reinforcement of French and Spaniſh Troops is arriv'd at Salo, and thoſe Troops have extended themſelves below Gavardo. They write from Verona that the Duke of Vendome having ſeen the Intrenchments made between the Lake of Garda and the Adige finiſh'd, had poſted himſelf near the Centre of the Paſſages of that River which are guarded by his Troops 40 Miles in extent, that he may be at Hand to repair wherever his Preſence may be neceſſary.

From the Leiden Courant, dated June 30.

Paris, June 25. Our Court is apprehenſive the Venetians will renounce their Neutrality and ſide with the Emperour. And the Duke of Vendome has made ſome Proviſion againſt it, by cauſing two Forts to be made, the one oppoſite to Verona the other to Legnano. M. de Peſnes having brought to Court from Madrid a Pacquet from the Princeſs of Urſini, is ſent to the Baſtile, for what Cauſe is unknown.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated June 29.

Francfort, June 24. The Troops of Heſſe that are on the Way to Italy, are already got beyond Heilbron, and continue their March with all Expedition.

Some of the Prints ſay Prince Eugene will have 40000 effective Men beſides theſe Heſſians, which by Letters from the Hague we are told are 10 or 12000 Men.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 29.

Geneva, June 16. We have confirm'd Adviſe that a Conſpiracy has been detected in Turin. The Governour of the Citadel had caus'd a lighted Match to be laid in the Magazine of Powder of the Citadel, with Deſign to blow it up and then pretend a Bomb of the Enemy's had done it; but his Treachery was diſcover'd and the Match taken up when it had but a Quarter of an Hour longer to burn. Some ſay the Duke of Savoy has caus'd that Governour to be immur'd between 4 Walls; others that he has caus'd him to be nail'd to the Gate on the Po; that 2 Ingeniers, 4 Officers, and 8 Soldiers, were his Accomplices; and that 4 of theſe are ſiez'd, but that the reſt have eſcap'd. The King of France has iſſued Orders for raiſing 60000 Men before the End of this Campaign: Valence, and Roinans in Dauphine, muſt furniſh 300 Men each. Theſe new Levies are to be put into the Frontier Garriſons, and the old Troops are to be drawn out into the Field.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated June 29.

Letters from Turin of the 9th of June, ſay the Marquis de Carail, formerly Governour of Nice, commands in that City, in the Room of the Marquis de Luſingue who is indiſpos'd: And that the Beſiegers Bombs had till then done no Damage.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 29.

Nuremberg, June 22. The 20th Inſtant died at Turkheym Maximiliana Dutcheſs Dowager of Bavaria, leaving behind her ſeveral Counties and Lordſhips of which the Emperor has the Diſpoſal. The Court of Vienna have annull'd the Title of Prince which was given to the Sons of the Elector of Bavaria, and order'd that for the future they ſhall be ſtil'd ouly Counts of Wittleſpach, which it ſeems is the Name of their Family.

Hanover, June 22. The King of Pruſſia during his ſtay here, made Preſents of very great Value to the Electoral Princeſs who is contracted to the Prince Royal Royal his Son, particularly a Ring worth 36000 Rixdollars. The 20th his Majesty set out for Cleves. There are in his Retinue 400 Men and about 1000 Horses. Our Peasants furnish'd 1600 Horses to carry his Baggage as far as Minden. His Majesty has declar'd he will return hither 5 or 6 Weeks hence, when the Wedding will be kept with all Magnificence.

Hildesheim, June 25. The Prince Royal of Prussia set out from Hanover Yesterday Morning at 3 a Clock for Cleves, being complimented with a Discharge of the Artillery on the Ramparts: 'Tis believ'd he will go from Cleves to the Army of the Allies. This Morning my Lord Hallifax set out from Hanover for the Hague, whence he will likewise go to the Army in Flanders. The Elector of Hanover will go to Morrow to Pyrmont to use the Waters, and will be accompanied by the Princess Sophia Dorothea his Daughter, who is betroth'd to the Prince Royal of Prussia, and by Duke Ernest his Brother.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 29.

Cologne, June 25. The 23d the King of Prussia, with a very numerous Retinue, arriv'd at Wesel: Our Chapter has appointed Baron Bernsau to go to Cleves (where his Majesty is suddenly expected,) to make their Compliments to him. To Day 4 Regiments of the Elector Palatine's Troops began their March to joyn the Army of the Allies in the Netherlands, after having past in Review Yesterday at Dusseldorp before his Electoral Highness. 'Tis said the Regiments of Anspach and Anhalt have pass'd the Rhine at Wesel, to follow the other Prussian Troops that are advanc'd near to Aloft.

Hague, June 29. Yesterday General Tettau arriv'd here, with a Letter written to the States by the King of Prussia, to notify to them his Arrival at Cleves: 'Tis not doubted his Majesty will come hither; for the Palace call'd the oude Hoff, and Honslaerdyke, are fitting up in all Haste. There is little likelihood that an Accomodation will be concluded while his Majesty is here, of the Difference between him and the Prince of Nassau Frise about the Inheritance of the late King William; for on Saturday last the Princess of Nassau sent a new Declaration to the States, importing that she is absolutely determin'd to come to no Accommodation at all, but will leave it to her Son to act as he himself thinks fit when he comes of Age.

London, June 27.

Francis Eyles, Esq; having paid his Fine, and John Ward, Esq; pleaded Privelege of Parliament, Saturday next is appointed for a new Election of Sherriffs of London and County of Middlesex for the Year ensuing, and we hear that William Benson and Ambrose Crawley, Esquires, being Persons of known Integrity and well affected to her Majesty and the Government both in Church and State, are to be put in Nomination in the Common Hall to serve that Office.
